

Sponsoring / Exhibition

The two day congress BioNanoMed 2010 on 2-3 November 2010 in Krems/Austria will bring together academia, industry, governmental and non-governmental institutions to discuss current, emerging and future trends of the converging fields of Nanotechnology, Biotechnology and Medicine.

You are cordially invited to sponsor BioNanoMed 2010. With this unique opportunity to accommodate the conference in Krems, it serves as an excellent platform to promote your product portfolio and to establish direct links to a broad audience of experts. So please be welcome to join this event.

As an exhibitor or sponsor you will make a great contribution to the BioNanoMed 2010 ! Different exhibition & sponsoring packages are offered but feel free to ask for individual package deals for your presentation at the BioNanoMed 2010.

We are looking forward to receive your order form.
